Matthew 19:27-29

“Letting It All Go—For What?”

²⁷ Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore? ²⁸ And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

²⁹ And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands,

for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

Whatever and whomever you've FORSAKEN for the cause of
FOLLOWING Christ
Jesus, you'll gain 100 times greater than
what you've given up,
plus non-stop real life.
That is a direct

assurance from One who is qualified
to make such promise and who is able to keep it.

It's not poetry or a writer's musings. It's not a historical account of something that happened hundreds or thousands of years ago.
It's not a twisting of words for a feel-good emotion. It's a guarantee. It's a reason to let it go...

let it all go... family and fortune included—
for the sake of Christ.
